

COOKIE POLICY

Media Production Group SRL (hereinafter referred to as "MPG" or "us") undertakes to offer you the best online experience when visiting the website carpathianmtb.ro (the "Website").

For this purpose, we use our own cookies and standard cookies from third parties to obtain data about your behavior while visiting the Website, and we also track how often you visit the Website. The information we collect is anonymous and will not personally identify you unless you provide us with your information by completing a form or other feature provided on the Website.

In cases where personal information is collected by MPG, for example through a form, this collection complies with the provisions of Regulation 2016/679 applicable in all EU Member States. The data entered by you in the form is used only to contact you and provide you with information about your message / request sent by you either by MPG or by our affiliates, depending on your request (Media Production Group SRL / ProAM Events Foundation).

What we track

We do not use intrusive cookies on websites to collect your personal information. We use industry-standard cookies from third parties, such as Google Analytics, to track your online behavior and get aggregated statistical information in the following ways:

- We track the number of visits to the Website, from where each visitor came (that is, the website visited before you arrive on the Website) and where every visitor goes after visiting the Website (that is, the website you visit after you leave the Website).
- A cookie is stored on your device for no more than one (1) year and is related to your IP address. Cookies are small text files that the browser stores on your device. This allows us to watch if you return to the Website.

How cookies are administered

Unless you have set your browser settings to refuse cookies, our systems will issue cookies each time you access the Website.

You can refuse cookies by activating the browser setting that allows you to refuse cookies. This will delete all cookie details. However, if you select this setting you may not be able to access portions of the Website or use certain features.

Third party cookies

During your Website visit you may also notice content from third parties. We may also provide you with the opportunity to contact us further and share information with other people using social networks such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram or Twitter. This content is added to keep you up to date with carefully selected information that you might consider relevant, but this may allow third party suppliers to store additional cookies on your device.

Therefore, we suggest checking these third party websites and their cookie policies for more information about their cookies and how you can manage them.
